Château Pesquié 2012 Cotes du Ventoux
Cuvee Artemia (Red) Rating: 93

“Showing more Grenache character (this cuvee is a 50/50 blend of Grenache and Syrah), the 2012 Ventoux Artemia has awesome black raspberry, garrigue, sweet spice and creamy licorice aromas and flavors all soaring from the glass. Hard to resist, it’s medium to full-bodied, voluptuous and downright sexy on the palate, with polished tannin, beautiful mid-palate depth and no shortage of length through the finish. It’s a thrilling wine to enjoy over the coming 5-6 years, although I wouldn’t be surprised to see it evolve for longer.”

Château Pesquié 2012 Cotes du Ventoux
Cuvee la Quintessence (Red) Rating: 92

“Deeper and richer than the Terrasses, the Syrah dominated 2012 Ventoux Quintessence has a fabulous perfume of black raspberry, violets, vanilla bean and licorice. This is followed by a medium to full-bodied red that a forward, sexy, supple texture and no hard edges. More approachable right out of the gate than is normal for this cuvee, it should drink nicely though 2020.”

Château Pesquié 2013 Cotes du Ventoux
Cuvee des Terrasses (Rosé) Rating: 90

“Elegant, supple, and pure, with notions of white peach, rose and strawberry, the 2013 Ventoux Terrasses Rose is medium-bodied, lightly textured, pure and deliciously quaffable on the palate. Made from a direct press of Cinsault, Grenache and Syrah, it’s a perfect hot summer day effort to enjoy over the coming 4-5 months.”

Château Pesquié 2013 Cotes du Ventoux
Cuvee des Terrasses (Red) Rating: 91*

“The 2013 Ventoux Terrasses offer gorgeous garrigue, white pepper, underbrush and sweet berry fruit to go with a forward, seamless, elegant style on the palate. Year in and year out this cuvee is an incredible value and a no brainer that readers need to buy.”

Château Pesquié 2013 Cotes du Ventoux
Cuvee la Quintessence ($25.00) (White) Rating: 91*

“Easily one of my favorite whites from this up and coming region, Pesquie’s 2013 Ventoux Quintessence Blanc knocks it out of the park with its gorgeous apple, pear, brioche and lemon curd-scented bouquet. Medium-bodied, fresh and pure, with good richness and length, it’s a rock star bottle to buy by the case.”
